

Lucky Louis likes having his own lucky star

Is there a special boy in your life who could use some original artwork to accent his bedroom walls?

Such has been the case with my 12 year old nephew, Louis, who needed a few accent pieces to set off his new blue bedroom. I did a painting just for him and called it, "Lucky Star."

"The Lucky Star painting is special because it was made specifically for me," says Louis. "It has extra meaning to me because my nickname just happens to be LUCKY."

Now his older brother, Gerard, wants a star for his side of the blue bedroom, too.

Looks like this boys' bedroom will soon include two paintings for these two special stars.

If you would like me to paint a special color scheme or star set for a special star in your life, email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

Lucky Louis with his "Lucky Star"

Dan Fogelberg tribute tees a hit

The tee shirts I designed for a recent Dan Fogelberg Tribute Concert were such a hit that I ran out and had to print a second batch. Now only a handful of shirts remain. If you're a Dan Fogelberg fan and would still like to order a white 100% preshrunk cotton short sleeve tee shirt with navy lettering, email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com. Shirts are $15. Proceeds from these shirts will help cover costs for the new Fogelberg Parkway signage at Frye and Prospect Streets here in Dan's hometown of Peoria, IL.

A billboard in Peoria promoting the Dan Fogelberg Tribute Concert included my Dan Fogelberg graphic