Circles of Light exhibit planned at Foster Gallery

Mark your calendars and plan to join me on the second floor mezzanine of the Foster Gallery of Art at the United Methodist Church, 116 NE Perry in Peoria, Illinois, on Friday, May 4 from 5 PM - 8:30 PM, where I'll be the featured artist from April 6 until May 20. My exhibit, Circles of Light, will feature some of my latest paintings that incorporate my favorite shape and artistic symbol, the circle. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided from 6 - 8 PM. The church has free parking across the street to make it easy for you to drop by. Hope to see you!

Even Dear Annie says, "Send a card"

In a recent "Dear Annie" advice column, a reader mentioned that she missed receiving holiday and birthday greetings in the mail by friends, family and loved ones. Annie agreed, saying that the decline in sending notecards is a byproduct of our convenience-driven culture.

Because I'm such a fan of the handwritten note, I've created my own HeartART notecard line that you can visit on my website at SuzetteBoulais.com. Take a look at the wide variety of hand-painted designs I offer. If you see a design or two you particularly like, why not buy a set? You'll then be able to send some personal greetings with a very personal touch.

Contemporary zen

I extend a special thanks to Jean Hampton of Havana, Illinois, who purchased this pair of 12" x 12" paintings for her home. Her first reaction when she saw these paintings was that they had a contemporary and zen feel to them.

A spot on observation!
